Review Highlights - Housed in Santa Barbara's "upscale" Upham Hotel, a "quiet" Victorian with "lots of history", this "hidden gem" offers "creative", "up-to-date" Californian cuisine and "spot-on" service in a "bistro"-like space with "wooden floors" and a "nice porch". . . . "Excellent specials", a "choice" selection of wines and "romantic" ambiance contribute to a "wonderful dining experience."
